Flickerfest international short film festival has extensive world wide contacts built up over its past twelve years of operation and will be utilising these contacts to promote the world of Australian shorts to an international audience. Flickerfest is interested in viewing Australian short drama and animated films under 30 minutes in duration with a view to acquiring them for sale to international and Australian territories for general broadcast, theatrical, non-theatrical and pay television mediums. Flickerfest is only interested in films that are not already represented by an international sales agent and have not already been sold to TV in significant major territories. If you are interested in Flickerfest representing your film please complete and return this form.
